CHRISTMAS PARADE 2017

BY HOPE POWELL

Mrs. Torres and Mrs. Schultz were in charge of the Christmas float. Mrs. Torres said that the float took 2 1/2 weeks and 120 people to build the float. They finished it the Thursday before Thanksgiving break. She also said that it was a lot of work.

Mrs. Schultz said that Wallace was awarded third place, but we tried our best. It was hard work but fun making it.

Mrs. Schultz's favorite part was the kids. Mrs. Torres enjoyed walking down Main Street with the Student Council. They both loved being part of it and hoped everyone enjoyed it.

WE COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT (except Mr. Gibson said no)

By Ashley Rosales

This year P. E. Wallace 6th graders had a Christmas Dance. The gym was beautifully decorated with lights and Christmas trees. This year our Queen was Ella Cross and the King was Christopher Moreno. Mr. Gibson was the DJ and he played some great songs. Pizza, cokes, and chips were sold. Even the teachers were dancing. This year's dance was a huge success.

A DAY IN SCHOOL

By Zoe Zittel

It's 8:21 and I'm ready to go.

P. E. is waiting, and I wish the wind would blow.

A big rain storm would be nice.

So it would get kinda bad and turn out the lights.

We wouldn't be in class, we'd be having fun.

Because in class it gets pretty boring.

That's the reason I wish it was storming.

We keep grieving on through the day.

We say, "Is it recess yet or even lunch?"

Because we want to go to 9th period a bunch

That's the fun one, the one we got to choose.

And in a little while you'll get to kick off your shoes.

Longing to leave, and hoping there's some kind of catastrophe.

That's the way it seems to be,

When we're at school. Or at least that's me!

MRS. FENDER

By Tisha Patel

Mrs. Fender is a 6th grade math teacher. She has been teaching for 7 years. She attended Texas A&M-Texarkana. She loves knowing all students and watching them grow into young adults that love math. The school chose her and placed her as a 5th grade math tutor and she later became a 6th grade math teacher. She has worked at Pittsburg Intermediate and Vicksburg, Mississippi. She is the feature teacher because she does the best that she can to teach her students what they need to know to be successful.

WALLACE SMILES

By Beverly Zuniga

- ◆ Q: What's the difference between someone playing solitaire and a hungry mouse?

A: One finds it an ease to cheat; the other finds cheese to eat.

- ◆ Lori: You are so not lit.

Emma: I know. I'm not a candle.

- ◆ Q: What kind of pets do nothing but lie around the room?

A: carpets

WE ARE FLOORED!!

By Hope Powell

We have a new gym floor and we love it! Here's some of the comments overheard: "Love the tiger!" and "like the bright colors," and "new paint is a positive adjustment for lots of students."
