MAY 2020 PARENT NEWSLETTER

Everyday life has changed and will continue to change. Children may struggle with the change and adjusting to a new routine and may interfere with their sense of normalcy, security, and structure. Children are good observers of people and environments and notice stress in their parent, and other caregiver, peers, and community. This is why it's important to care for their emotional health too.

You can do this by creating a safe physical and emotional environment by practicing the 3 R's: Reassurance, Routine, and Regulation.

- Reassurance: Adults should reassure their children that they are there to keep them safe and their loved ones.
- Routine: Children enjoy having a routine that makes them feel safe and predictable.
- Regulation: Adults are supportive of their children and regulate their emotional needs by encouraging them in times of stress in engaging activities.

WEEK 6

Facilitating Creative Art

Creative art is a key part of child-centered experience. It helps develop young children to be creative thinkers and risk takers. Below are ways you can support your child's creativity:

Ask them to describe their art: The child is likely to want to describe their artwork to you and feel happy you are taking notice of their creativity.

Don't assume you know what children have created: Let the child describe their picture because it could have a different meaning to the child than you interpreted.

Use specific descriptive comments: comments could include "I see you spent a lot of time coloring with the purple and green markers, it makes your drawing look so colorful and bright."

Don't get into the habit of commenting on each picture: As your child may feel that they need your approval of everything they create.

Living Room Activities:

- Make slime
- Watercolor drawing
- Do a puzzle
- Put on a sock puppet play
- Read a book

How to Make Slime:

12 oz of Elmer white glue

MAYO 2020 NOTICIAS PARA LOS PADRES

WEEK 6

Nuestras vidas han cambiado y continuarán cambiando. Los niños pueden tener dificultades con el cambio y adaptándose a una nueva rutina y pueden interferir con su sentido de normalidad, seguridad y estructura. Los niños son buenos observadores de personas y su ambiente y notan el estrés en sus padres y otros cuidadores, compañeros y comunidad. Por eso también es importante cuidar su salud emocional.

Puede hacer esto creando un ambiente físico y emocional seguro practicando: tranquilidad, rutina y regulación.

- Tranquilidad: los adultos deben asegurar a sus hijos que están allí para mantenerlos a salvo y a sus seres queridos.
- Rutina: a los niños les gusta tener una rutina que los haga sentir seguros y ayuda con autodisciplina.
- Regulación: los adultos apoyan a sus hijos y regulan sus necesidades emocionales alentándolos en momentos de estrés con actividades interesantes.

Facilitando el Arte

El arte creativo es una parte clave de la experiencia centrada en el niño. Ayuda a desarrollar a los niños pequeños para que sean pensadores creativos y tomadores de riesgos. A continuación se presentan formas en que puede apoyar la creatividad de su niño:

Pídale que describan su arte: es probable que el niño quiere describir su obra de arte y se sienta feliz de que se dio cuenta de su creatividad.

No asuma que sabe los que los niños han creado: deje que el niño describa su imagen porque podría tener un significado diferente para el niño que usted interpreta.

Use comentarios descriptivos específicos: Por ejemplo "veo que usaste mucho los marcadores azul y amarillo para el cielo. ¡Muy impresionante!"

No se acostumbre a comentar en cada imagen: Ya que su niño puede sentir que necesita su aprobación de todo lo que crea.

Actividades en la sala:

- Hacer slime
- Dibuj de color de agua
- Hacer un rompecabezas
- Poner un espectáculo de títeres de calcetines
- Leer un libro

Como Hacer Slime:

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
This month focuses on sound awareness! When completing initial sound activities, say the sound, not the letter. The letter 'S' says /s/, not 'es' or 'suh'.
		Say the sounds in your child's name. Together think of a word that begins with each one of the sounds (e.g. /l...jump, /l...igloo, /l...Lego)		Take turns saying the first sound (not letter) of animals you see on a farm. (e.g. goat /g/, cow /k/, pig /p/)		Say /t/ sounds to your child. Have them write the letter for each of the sounds in shaving cream on a cookie sheet.
				Play "I'm going on a trip" and take turns thinking of things you could bring on a trip beginning with the /t/ sound.
						While grocery shopping, have your child find items that begin with the /s/ sound. (e.g. sweater, socks, sandals, scarf, swimsuit)
						Read your child's favorite book. Have him/her give you a thumbs up every time you say a word beginning with the same sound as his/her name.
						Think of a food beginning with the same sound as numbers 1 through 10. (e.g. one watermelon, two tomatoes)
						Make up a silly sentence that has at least 5 words beginning with the /m/ sound.

DOMINGO	LUNES	MARTES	MIÉRCOLES	JUEVES	VIERNES	SÁBADO
Haz algo de ayuda por un familiar o amigo.	Conéctate con algún familiar para saludarlo y platicar.	Cuenta tus bendiciones; haz una lista con actos amables que otros han hecho por ti.	Crea y comparte una tarjeta o dibujo con alguien que amas.	Sal al jardín o patio y encuentra algún objeto que te recuerde a alguien. Compártelo con tu familia.	Crea un “estacionamiento para celulares/tablets” para que disfruten momentos libres de electrónicos cada día.	Encuentra un juego de cartas y juega en familia.
Encuentra un chiste que te guste y compártelo con otras dos personas por teléfono o videollamada.	Planeen juntos una comida de 3 tiempos. Escriban o dibujen cada platillo para compartir después como menú.	Sal al jardín o patio y encuentra material para crear un centro de mesa para disfrutarlo con los demás.	Nombra tres cosas por las que estás agradecido. Dibuja o escribe una lista y colócala en un lugar visible.	Crea 5 “tarjetas felices” para personas de la tercera edad dentro de tu comunidad. Entrégalas siguiendo las sugerencias de cuidado.	Mientras te lavas las manos mira en el espejo y di una cosa que te guste sobre TI.	Haz un acto amable que facilite la vida de alguien más.
Piensa en 3 personas con las que te sientas agradecido y dales las gracias.	Sonríe a las personas con las que estás para iluminar su día.	Aprende algo nuevo hoy y compártelo con alguien.	Escoge tu canción o canciones favoritas y disfruta de un fiesta espontánea de baile.	Consigue uno o dos juegos de cartas y construye una casita. Platica acerca de lo que tu crees que forma un hogar seguro y qué nos conecta con otros.	Sal al jardín o patio y disfruta del juego. “Luz roja, luz verde”. Asegúrate de correr, caminar, deslizarte, brincar y disfruta de otras formas creativas de moverte.	Diseña y crea un instrumento musical. Disfruta el concierto al compartir.
Pídele a alguien hacer lo que más te gusta hacer hoy.	Manda un mensaje o carta a alguien con quien no hayas podido estar hoy.	Encuentra tu libro favorito y léelo o compártelo con alguien.	Disfruta de una búsqueda del tesoro con alguien. Ambos escriban una lista de 5 cosas que la otra persona debe encontrar, cambien listas y empiecen!	Nota 5 cosas que son hermosas en tu mundo. Comparte tu lista con alguien.	Aprendan a jugar “avioncito” y jueguen juntos.	Dale las gracias a alguien y déjale saber cómo hace la diferencia para ti.
